The Global Fight for Climate Justice is edited and has contributions by Ian Angus. This is a collection of 46 essays by anticapitalist activists around the world, on topics ranging from the food crisis to carbon trading to perspectives from indigenous peoples. They make a compelling case that saving the world from climate catastrophe will require much more than tinkering with technology or taxes. Only radical social change can prevent irreversible damage to the earth and to civilization.

“Essential reading for everyone who is serious about confronting the climate emergency.” – Emma Murphy, co-editor Green Left Weekly

Publisher: Resistance Books (London)
ISBN: 978-0-902869-87-5
Publication Date: July 2009
Price £10 (£2 discount with advance booking to the seminar)
